Race Overview

Faraway Tree and potentially Everything Nice will both aim to take their place in the first race at Bendigo for the Super Stable owners on Sunday. It's a big field and at the moment the track is rated a Good 4.

Both of our horses are drawn wide in barriers 16 and 17 and there do look some capable gallopers eyeing this race off. Of the 17 horses that have accepted, only five horses have race day experience, with Everything Nice being one of them.

A CLOSER LOOK AT SOME KEY COMPETITORS

2. EVERYLITTLE BREEZE

A two-year-old filly by Gold Standard which has impressed with three jumpouts victories. Colours that we are familiar with and trainers that we are familiar with as well. Tricky map for Dean Holland from barrier 11.

3. FARAWAY TREE

Our two-year-old filly by Tosen Stardom. Has had a couple of jumpouts at Flemington and has improved in both. A tricky draw for jockey Liam Riordan to try and navigate from. There is a long straight from the 1100m shoot before they take the only corner in the race.

5. IT'S MY TURN

One of the few with race day experience. The two-year-old filly by Star Turn has had one start for trainer Danny O'Brien and finished third at Geelong on that occasion. Can show speed and from barrier 2 with Linda Meech in the saddle, we'd suggest it will be on speed again.

8. NAVY GIRL

The recent Group 1 winning combination of Ethan Brown and Maher/Eustace combine again here with Navy Girl. The filly by Merchant Navy has had a couple of jumpouts and was able to win one of them.

11. SWISS BABE

A nice looking filly by Rubick. She has the formidable combination of Peter Moody and Luke Nolen. Won a jumpout at Pakenham over 800m in nice time and should get a nice run from barrier 7.

17e. EVERYTHING NICE

Our filly by Rubick brings the most race-day experience to this race. Thrown in the deep end on debut and then last start on return was given a nice ride by Liam Riordan and faded after the turn. Riordan takes the ride on Faraway Tree which could be a sign of ability (or because it has a run), and again she will need some luck from a wide draw. There should be a three-wide line in this race, so she should have cover.

BETTING PLAY (Faraway Tree & Everything Nice)

For this race and from the draws, I can't find a spot for either runner in the top 4. If you like them, you're getting nice odds at $30+ to back both.

BETTING PLAY (Overall)

Tough race with so many unknowns. If I was to have a bet, i would be happy to have a win bet on both #2 and #8.
