Target market

Likely objectives, financial situation and needs of consumers (investors) in the target market <small>s 994B(5)(b)</small>	Product description including key attributes <small>RG 274.68(b)</small>
Objective
Investors seeking to achieve one or more of the following objectives: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ To participate in owning and racing a particular thoroughbred racehorse which is trained by a particular trainer. ■ To spread the costs and risks of owning and racing a racehorse with other investors in the syndicate, rather than seeking to retain full ownership and control of the racehorse. ■ To make a passive investment in a racehorse by leaving the management and day-to-day control of the horse to another person. ■ Potentially, to share in the prize money from the racing the racehorse. ■ Potentially, to access capital growth from selling the racehorse. 	The Fund is a horse racing syndicate designed to enable investors to have a micro-share (via the Fund) in the Racehorse. Legally, the Product is an interest in a managed investment scheme registered with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission structured as a unit trust. The legal owner of the interest in the Racehorse held on behalf of the Scheme is the Issuer in its capacity as responsible entity of the Fund. The Issuer has appointed the Manager to manage the Scheme's interest in the Racehorse on a day-to-day basis, and to exercise its rights (as an agent of the responsible entity) in respect of the Racehorse in accordance with the relevant co-owners agreement and the rules of racing. The Racehorse is trained by the Trainer. The Product has the following key attributes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ■ The Product is an interest in a class of units in the Fund, the assets and liabilities of which are referable to the Racehorse. ■ A class of units in the Fund do not constitute a separate trust. The Issuer, as responsible entity of the Fund, may acquire other racehorses, which will be held primarily for the benefit of holders of units in another class in the Fund.

- The costs associated with the acquisition, maintenance and racing of the Racehorse are generally funded by levies paid by Fund investors in the relevant class.
- Any net prize money and other winnings earned by the Racehorse are distributed to Fund investors holding units in the relevant class in accordance with their respective proportional ownership of units in that class.
- The Racehorse may be sold at the conclusion of its racing career, or earlier if the Manager considers it to be in the interests of investors of the relevant class, and the net proceeds distributed to Fund investors in the relevant class.

Financial situation

Investors in one or more of the following financial situations:

- Investors with investable assets that meet the minimum product investment requirements.
- Investors who are capable of weathering the loss of their invested principal and who understand that investing in racehorses is speculative in nature.
- Investors who are not reliant on a steady or reliable income stream.
- Investors with sufficient financial resources to pay initial levies.

There is a minimum investment amount per investor of $1,907 (including an initial levy of $455) for 1,452 of Relevant Class Units at the subscription price of $1 per Relevant Class Unit. The maximum investment amount is for 43,560 of Relevant Class Units.

The investment risks of the Product include the risk that the Racehorse may not be able to be sold (due to, for example, death or injury) and that the Racehorse may not earn any prize money or other winnings. This may lead to a loss of capital and income.

The fee structure of the Fund is based on the charging of a scheme levy and a horse levy, both of which are payable upon an application for the Product, and thereafter monthly in advance.

Needs

Investors that have one or more of the following needs:

- Seeking to rely on the Manager's relevant expertise in horse racing and network of racehorse-related service providers.
- Seeking an interest in one particular thoroughbred racehorse only which is trained by a particular trainer.
- Seeking to invest in a thoroughbred racehorse for an expected investment period of two to four

The Manager has relevant expertise in horse racing, including in relation to procuring the service of various service providers in the racehorse training and racing industry.

The Racehorse is trained by the Trainer, which is an experienced trainer of racehorses.

The expected investment period in respect of the Product is two to four years, which reflects the typical racing career of a thoroughbred racehorse, although the term of the investment in depends on a number of factors relevant to the ability of the Racehorse to continue racing. Investors do not have a right to require the Issuer to redeem their years.	units or to buy them back at any time during the term of the Fund. However, investors may transfer their units to another person, with the approval of the Issuer at its discretion.

<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Seeking regular reports about the status of the thoroughbred racehorse. Seeking to receive information about and manage their investment in the racehorse digitally. 	The Manager and/or the Trainer will prepare regular reports about the racehorse to be delivered to relevant Fund investors via the Fund's online platform. Other updated information about the Fund and applications for additional units in the Fund can be made online.

Appropriateness of the target market and product attributes

s 994B(8) and RG 274.68(c)

The Issuer considers that the Product, including its key attributes, is likely to be consistent with the likely objectives, financial situation and needs of investors in the target market on the basis of:

- the relationship between the key attributes of the Product and the target market as set out in this TMD;
- the terms of issue of the Product;
- the particular nature of the assets of the Fund, being thoroughbred racehorses, and the sole asset referable to the Product being the Racehorse;
- the narrow purpose of the Product being to enable investors to obtain a small indirect interest in the Racehorse and to share any net prize money from any winnings from the Racehorse;
- the need for additional on-going levies to maintain and upkeep the Racehorse;
- the Issuer's experience and knowledge of the racing industry in Australia, including the drivers affecting and motivating the typical behaviours of owners of racehorses;
- the Manager's experience and knowledge of the racing industry in Australia; and
- the Manager's experience and knowledge of the Racehorse, and its connections with the Trainer including the respective roles and responsibilities of the Manager and the Trainer set out in the Trainers' Training Agreement and Fees Notice between the Manager and the Trainer.
